Our identity is expressed by our actions,
our motions, which reflect our moods.

Every move we make reflects a mood.

Moods of imagination and creativity . . .

And said the owner of the velvet horse who heard all this. . . "I just know I'm going to get involved here," and slammed the machine in reverse, splitting both suns apart in doing so, probably.

Jimi Hendrix

. . .determination, victory . . .

...and celebration

When our moods become a part of our actions, we are no longer reflecting warped images of ourselves . . .

but portraying our true individuality.

Only when we discover our individuality can we understand our existence . . .

. . . in a world where the smallest and most insignificant become as beautiful as anything else when we look at it closely.

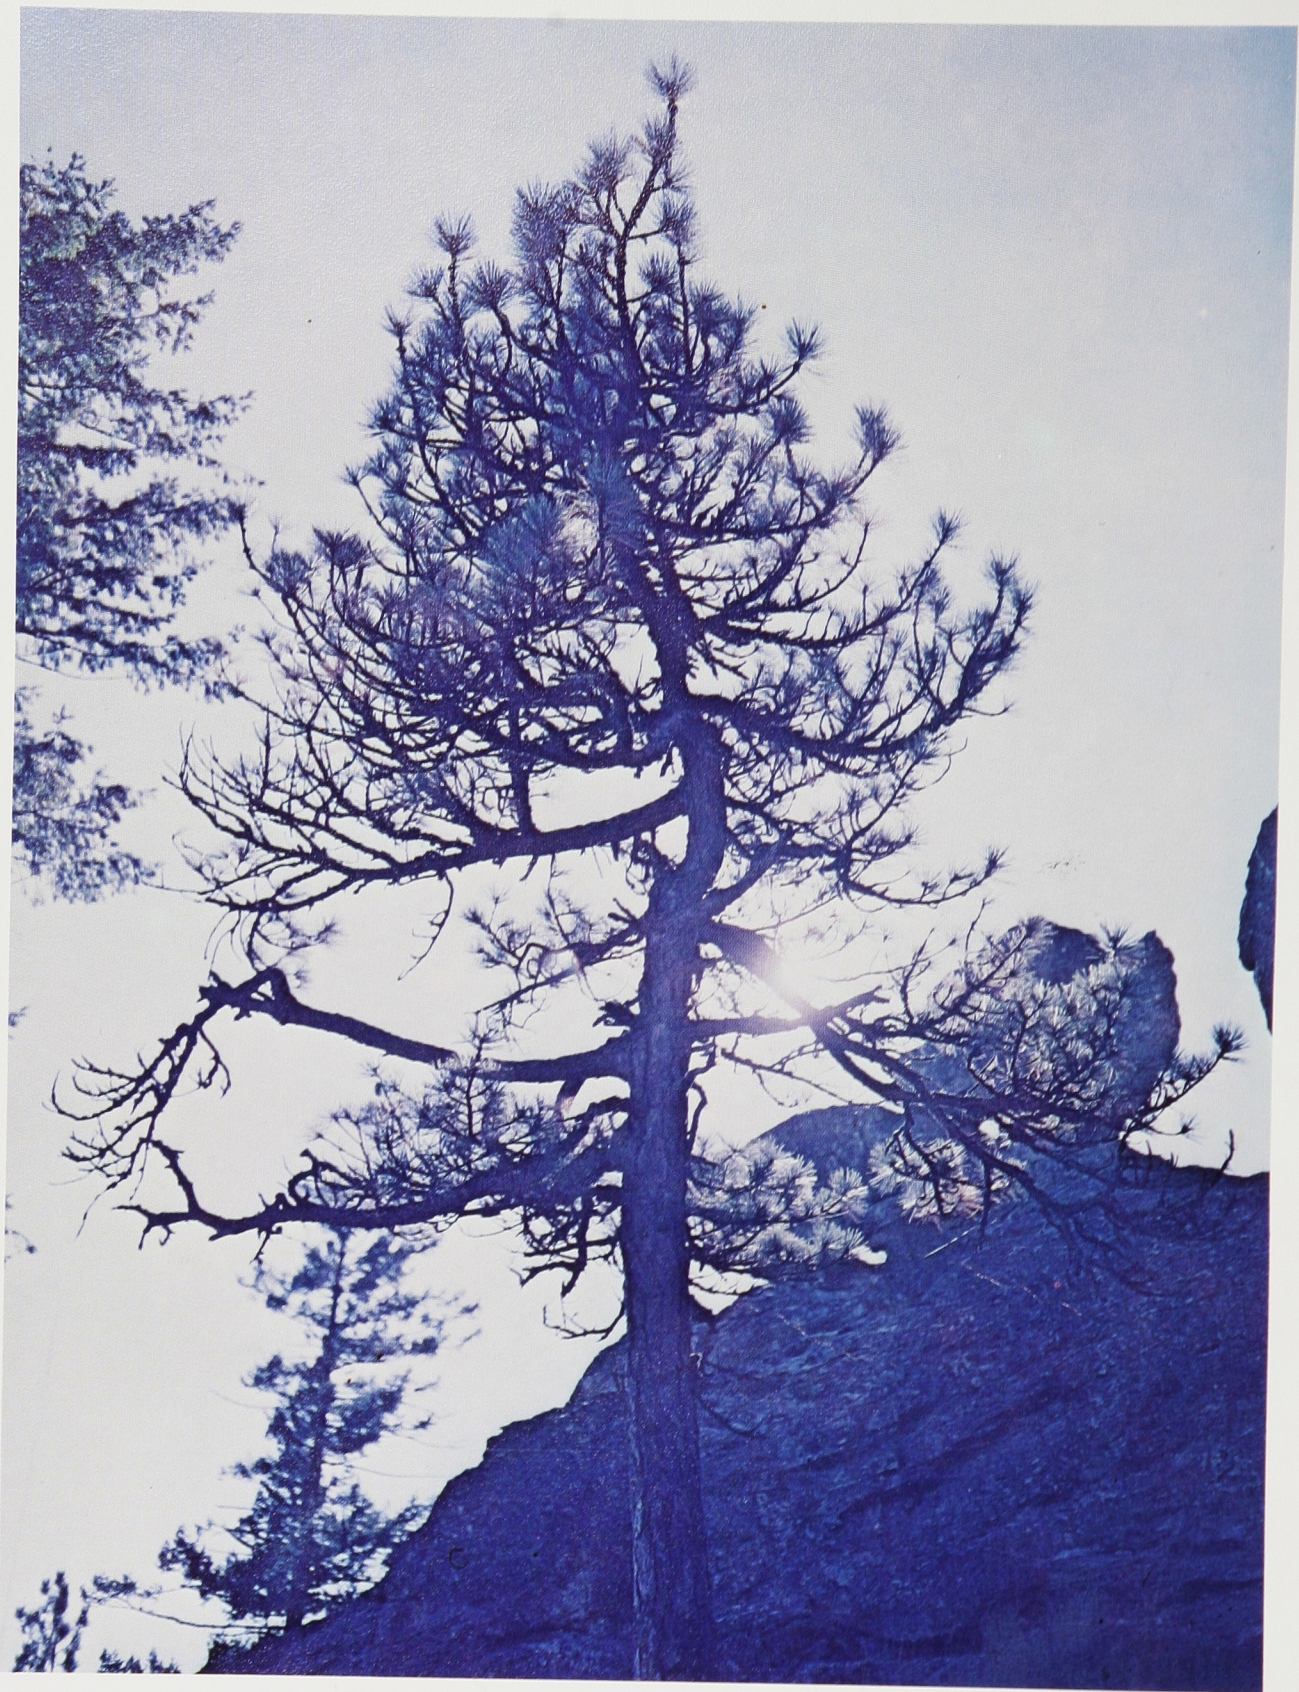

I want him to know the subtle, sneaky, important reasons
he was born a human being and not a chair.

Herb Gardener

This time, like all times, is a good one if we but know what to do with it.

Emerson

Desiderata

O placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Found in Old Saint Paul's Church, Baltimore.

IN MEMORY OF

PAM JOHNSTONE

The Class of 1974 will always remember Pam in their thoughts and memories, not only as a student, but as a friend who shared her life with us.

For the life of our emotions and our relationships is intermittent. When you love someone you do not love them all the time in exactly the same way, from moment to moment. It is an impossibility. And yet this is exactly what most of us demand. We have so little faith in the ebb and flow of life, of love, of relationships. We leap at the flow of the tide and resist in terror its ebb. We are afraid it will never return. We insist on permanency, duration, continuity: when the only continuity possible in life, is in growth, in fluidity, in freedom, in the sense that the dancers are free, barely touching as they pass, but partners in the same pattern.

Dear Doug,
I'm really, really excited for you!!! I meet so many great people in Seattle, and I know I will be an amazing person for you! I know I be leaving, and I must our friendship means a lot it always will! I hope when you chance you will write me and tell everything is going - Good Luck!!!
Love Kady

A large, stylized graphic of a mustache, rendered in black and white, dominates the lower half of the page. Below the mustache, the word "TUMOR" is written in large, bold, black, blocky capital letters. The letters are slightly irregular and have a hand-drawn feel. The entire graphic is set against a solid magenta background.

IN MEMORY OF BRAD PORCO

The heart feels empty,
The mind feels sad
When memory breaks
On the passing of Brad.
Years so young,
With so much to say,
It's hard to imagine
Brad's gone away.
Sorrow sets in,
That nothing can mend,
But the soul is warm,
God, we had such a friend.

50007-

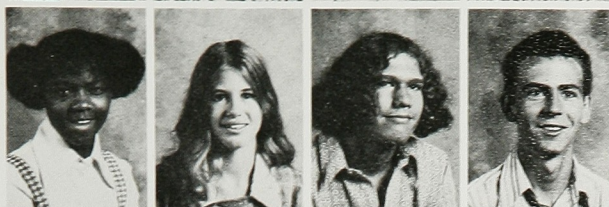

Mister America walk on by,
Your schools that do not teach.
Mister America walk on by,
The minds that won't be reached.
Mister America try to hide
The emptiness that's you inside.
But what you'll find is that the way you lied,
And all the corny tricks you tried,
Will not forstall the rising tide
Of hungry freaks daddy.

Mister America walk on by,
The supermarket dream.
Mister America walk on by,
The liquor store supreme.
Mister America try to hide
The product of your savage pride.
The useful lives that it denied,
The day you shrugged and stepped aside,
You say their clothes and then you cried,
"Those hungry freaks daddy."

THE LEWIS AND CLARK JOURNAL

Founded A.D. 1900 by Students of the Lewis and Clark High School

A boy in trouble
(Mr. Sullivan - Adviser)

"The Journal, the Lewis and Clark newspaper, under the able direction of the editors has closed another successful year. Our staff gained much practical experience in running a newspaper. Meeting deadlines, exercising mature judgement, handling explosive news articles, and setting type for the presses are only some of the tasks handled by the journalism class. As advisor it has been a pleasure working with these students."

Mr. Sullivan

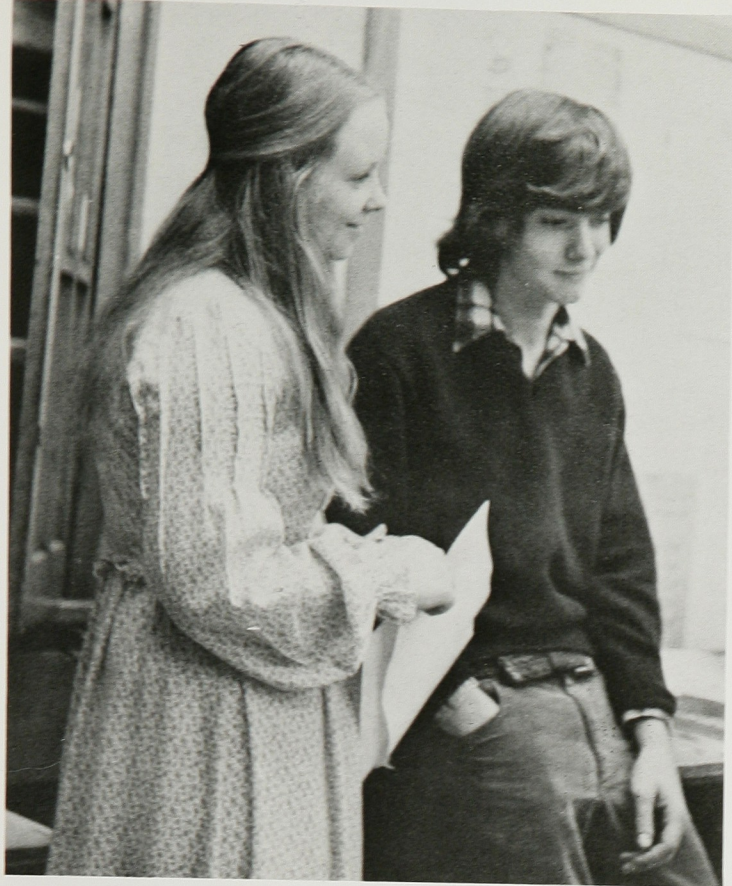

Fall Editor-
Larry Ganders

THE LEWIS AND CLARK JOURNAL

A self-supporting newspaper published twice monthly during the school year except January and March by Journalism students of Lewis and Clark High School. Entered as second-class matter at the post office in Spokane, October 25, 1917. Printed by Comet and Cole Printers. Editorial and Business Office, Room 106.

What do you mean I have bad breath?

I didn't use my deodorant today and I may not use it tomorrow!

These connect-the-dot pictures get harder all the time.

Mr. Expo at your service!

Debate Squad

I know that foot's in here somewhere.

"Resolved, that the federal government should guarantee a minimum annual income to each family unit."

The Lewis and Clark debaters, led by seniors Jim Burroughs and Jay Thayer and Juniors Mike Brothers and Morrie Mickelson, were in the top division of District 8 Debate League competition all season. The junior varsity division had a record of seven wins and three losses at mid-season, the best for several years.

The squad competed in the Eastern Washington Tournament at Yakima in December, at which junior debaters Roli Hirata and David Barnes tied for third place. Six teams competed at Gonzaga University in January and Washington State University in February and March.

Mike Brothers, Betsy Yake, Roli Hirata, and Margaret Logsdon earned first speaker rank consistently.

New members Ruthie Tamura, Peggy Malloy, Erik Peterson, and Chris Barnes earned wins in junior division during the season. Maureen Tritle, Mark Iverson, and Rolf Lunde joined the squad in February as beginning debaters.

Frankly, I'm with Frank.

An organization designed especially for those who plan to make a career of apathy. The members failed to show up for the picture and the advisor could not be reached for comment. "When the time came to stand up and be counted," these members were the ones who sat down.

Although smaller in number this year, the Tigerettes remain an active organization. They are hard working girls who help maintain school spirit. Their cheering section at games is loud and energetic. Each season they give an awards dessert for the teams and in the spring they sponsor a dance. Throughout the year the Tigerettes participate in many social and service activities. From sign painting to cheering, the Tigerettes remain dedicated to supporting the spirit of L.C.

The purpose of the Black Student Union is to further in every way a spirit of racial understanding, unity, friendliness and cooperation among the students and surrounding areas. Secondly we attempt to develop leadership, Promote Black ideas, and coordinate social and cultural standards of the Black students and citizens in the surrounding areas. Any student enrolled at Lewis and Clark High School may become a member of the Black Student Union. Some of the activities that the Black Student Union is involved in are: 1. Adopting two youngsters for Christmas. 2. Featuring Miss Oleta Adams and the Arnie Garruthers Trio. 3. B.S.U. dance in the Spokane Falls Lodge. 4. Field trips. 5. Various speakers. 6. Black Week. 7. Various concerts. 8. Fashion show and Con. The Black Student Union is a hard working group. We believe in working and getting our work done. The Black Student Union invites any student in Lewis and Clark to come in and rap and express any ideas that they may have.

Ti-DECA and DECA Associates are clubs associated with the Lewis and Clark Distributive Education classes. In the class the students study areas such as salesmanship, advertising and display, types of business organizations, business math, and others. They further their classroom knowledge with actual on-the-job training at their place of employment. Through these clubs the students are able to meet with students from throughout the state as well as those in our own area. They attend two state conferences during the year and culminate the year's activities with an annual employer - employee banquet.

Streakers Arouse Controversy in '74

The position of a publications advisor is one that involved decision making and the accepting of responsibility. Often the advisor must make decisions, hard decisions involving questions of taste and propriety. The function of a yearbook is to record the events and highlights of a school year. When a student reads his yearbook it is essential that he feel that it is a meaningful chronicle of his school life.

Events happen in and around a school that are seen by some to be controversial. This is the nature of life, and the school, being a mirror of life, is not immune to divergent points of view. What a bland world it would be without controversy.

A campus event, seen by some as nothing more than the Age of Aquarius' answer to golfish-swallowing, and seen by others as an indicator of moral malaise, became prime time news. Streaking became a household word. To not include this phenomenon in at least a tangential way would weaken the validity of this publication.

To permit streaking in a public place would have been as offensive to me as it would be to the general public and the majority of my students. The photograph, taken in a private place, is only a pale representation of the public act of streaking. No running through public places, an illegal act infringing on the rights of others, happened. Reasonable precautions were taken to safeguard the rights of others. The only wish the yearbook staff had was to symbolically record a faddish event of the school year.

As an advisor, I decided that with a reasonable amount of good taste this photograph could be tactfully presented. Some may object to its inclusion, but others may object as strongly to the inclusion of other activities, either sponsored or unsponsored by the school. I, as a teacher and as a private individual, am critical of several activities, but never-the-less they do appear because to leave them out would seriously weaken the efficacy of this yearbook.

I only request that the readers of this yearbook accord me the same privilege I accord them.

you did too. Biology had to be the best but you're just too smart for me. I can't stand it you, must ~~add~~ ~~ooooo~~. It's too bad that you're making my chemistry could be fun too. Do you remember when Char and I cheated the frog? Oh never forget that. I want you to stay away from Wanda and get rid of your dirty mind. No more really guy & think you a good guy and I want you to stay that way. Come back and see about me. I hope you didn't mutilate my best ~~...~~ or else
I'll be your arse and love,
Thanks for all the biology questions!!!
James

What lies behind us
And what lies before us
Are tiny matters
Compared to what lies within us.
